

I value obtaining Internet service from an independent ISP such as BerkshireNet, and Verizon's request would badly affect consumers by restricting the available choices for Internet Service for broadband.